The Reply of the Jew.

A Sermon Prenched by the flev. Rabbi Tuska, at the Synagogue, Saturday, 121h.

Rabbi Tuska, on Saturday, 12th inst. addressed the congregation B'nai Israel on the question, "Can a Christian ge to Teaven?" as viewed from a Jawish standpoint. This novel subject for a dis sourse he handled in a manner that w are sure will interest most of our readers and we propose to give them an outline of his remarks.

Choosing his text from the Lesson of the Day, Deuteronomy, 29th, last verse:
"The secret things belong unto the Lord our God; but the things which are evenled belong to us and to our children forever, to do all the words of this law. The speaker said that he had used this lext on saveral occasions, it being perdeularly appropriate for moral reflection on the Sabbath immediately preceding the New Year; but would now use it in eference to a rather novel theme, suggested by a discourse recently published on the question, "Can a Jow go to Heaven?" In that sermon, the occupies refused the theory of those who maintain hat the Jews, as well as the heathens. not believing in the peculiar doctrines of Christianity, cannot be saved, but are doomed to a region the very reverse of Every business man in Mamphia, especially those connected, in any way, with our cotton interests, remember the very serious difficulties which surrounded the compressing of cotton at this point last year. The distance from the business portion of the city at which the presses were situated, the awful condiion of our streets and the heavy expense of transportation to and from the presses, rendered it almost impossible to get the staple packed into good shipping shapes. This evil has been remedied by MESSES, H. A. MONTGOMERY & CO.
